DEFINITION OF TRADING LICENCE

The trading license means a tax levied on business activities carried out in defined boundaries of decentralized entities.

TAX PERIOD FOR THE TRADING LICENCE TAX

The tax period for the trading license, tax starts on January 1st and end on December 31st.

If taxable trading activities start after January, the taxpayer pays trading license tax equivalent to the remaining months of the year including the one in which the activities started.

For the taxpayers conducting seasonal or periodic trading activities, the trading license tax is paid for a whole year, even though the taxable trading activities do not occur throughout the whole year.

PERSONS EXEMPTED FROM THE TRADING LICENCE TAX

- Micro-enterprises and small businesses during the first two years following their establishment.

TRADING LICENCE TAX DECLARATION

• Contents of a trading license tax declaration

The trading license tax declaration shows details of the taxable business activities including the tax due assessed by a taxpayer himself/herself.

The taxpayer signs the trading license tax declaration or his/her legally authorized representative.

• Trading license tax declaration for the head office and operating branches

If a taxpayer has a head office and branches in Districts, a trading license tax declaration is required for the head office as well as for each branch of his or her business activities basing on the turnover of the previous year for the head office and for each branch.

In case a branch does not have or cannot determine its turnover, the trading license tax is declared based on the turnover of the head office.

However, if all the branches are located in the same district as the head office, the taxpayer pays the trading license tax according to the turnover of the head office. If the branches are located in a district other than that of the head office, the trading license tax is unique and calculated basing on the turnover of the branch with the highest turnover.

• Trading license tax declaration basing on different business activities

When a business activity is comprised of various activities carried out by one person in the same building, all of them are subject to a single trading license tax calculated basing on the general turnover of those business activities.

A vehicle registered in the name of a taxpayer engaged in various activities and used in the business of that taxpayer is not separately subject to the trading license tax. The taxpayer pays the trading license tax in accordance with the provisions of this Law.
